

CITY OF EASTON
PENNSYLVANIA

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the National Pink Tie Organization is a voluntary group dedicated to raising awareness among men to help support the fight against cancer. These men band together in their respective professions or areas of interest to help raise awareness, educate and raise funds to fight cancer, and

WHEREAS, Chefs Against Cancer ask that chef's from all over participate on this day by coming out and making their specialty dish or entrée to be displayed and eaten and to give educational information about healthy meals and ideas for maintaining a healthy diet for cancer patients and survivors, and

WHEREAS, many people across the nation have been stricken by this deadly disease either directly or indirectly through a loved one. Also, many have been forgotten about in their most fearful time of their lives and they need help in so many ways, and

WHEREAS, on Saturday, August 16, 2014, Chefs Against Cancer will be hosting a nationwide event called Chef's Appreciation Day. This day is set aside to honor all chefs across the nation for their tremendous dishes, nutrition, love and time they take to provide their community with the service of their trade at their establishments they represent, and

WHEREAS, above all else, Chef's Appreciation Day helps provide chefs and their families a taste of life that shows compassion, respect and acknowledgement for their gifts.

NOW THEREFORE, I, SALVATORE J. PANTO, JR., Mayor of the City of Easton, PA, do hereby proclaim Saturday, August 16, 2014, as in Easton, and hereby urge all residents to give back to those who have already helped so many others realize how truly wonderful a happy, healthy life can taste.

Chef's Appreciation Day

In witness, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Easton to be affixed this 16th day of August, 2014.

Salvatore J. Panto, Jr.

Salvatore J. Panto, Jr., Mayor

